

2024 Brooks Robinson High School Senior All-Star Game

Oriole Park at Camden Yards

July 1, 2024

In the first game since the passing of Brooks Robinson last fall, former Baltimore Orioles great Al Bumbry stepped up for his former teammate in throwing the ceremonial first pitch at the 42nd annual Brooks Robinson High School Senior All-Star Game played at Oriole Park at Camden Yards on July 1, 2024. Mac Crismond of Sherwood started for the North and retired the side in order in his one inning of work. He would later be selected as the North's Most Outstanding Pitcher. In the bottom half of the first, Lukas Loring of Stephen Decatur would also throw a perfect inning thanks to a blast by Ryan Maxey of Georgetown Prep being caught in deep right. Despite back-to-back lead-off singles by Ryan Brown of Great Mills and Lucas Edwards of Mount Hebron, the South could not plate a run in the top of the second against Michael Hemelt of Patterson Mill. With help of a 6-3 double play started by Calvin Cook of Broadneck, Lukas Loring would pitch another hitless, scoreless inning in the home half, and would later be selected as the South's Most Outstanding Pitcher. The South would score the first run of the game in the top of the third when a Sacrifice Fly by Cade Ahearn of Centennial plated Danny Dorsey of Glenelg who had reached on a lined single to left. Further damage was avoided thanks to a leaping bases-loaded, 2-out snare by first baseman Hunter St Denis of Magruder of a line drive ticketed for extra bases hit by Lucas Edwards. Daniel Hesson of Colonel Richardson would then preserve the South's one run lead, overcoming lead-off singles by Ryan Thompson of St. Maria Goretti, Koltin Boyer of Brunswick, and a bases-loaded jam. After a lead-off single by Chase Kamerman of Marriott's Ridge and loading the bases, the South also couldn't score against Luke Pearre of Poolesville in the top of the fourth. In the home half, the North would take the lead behind singles by Pierce Tewksbury of Bethesda Chevy-Chase, Will Oates of St. Maria Goretti, and Jackson Inman of Good Counsel. With two runs in, further damage was averted by a sensational bases-loaded, 2-out diving catch in right by Danny Orr of Thomas Johnson. As often seems to be the case in baseball, a player making a great catch leads off the next inning, and Orr delivered with a lined single down the left field line. Two batters later, he would score on Ryan Brown's second hit of the game with another run scoring on an error. Lucas Edwards' second hit would set up runners at the corners with no outs, but a potential Sacrifice Fly resulted in Brown being gunned out at the plate by a strike from center fielder Koltin Boyer. Taking a 3-2 lead into the top of the sixth, the South would blow the game open with five runs on singles by Arundel's Tha'Mon McGriff, Danny Dorsey, and Danny Orr, and a booming line drive triple to deep center field by Cade Ahearn. Ryan Brown would plate the final run with a RBI grounder, and would later be selected as the South's Most Valuable Player for his two hits and 3 RBIs. In the bottom half, the North would get one run back after a leadoff single by Jackson Inman, making the score 8-3 heading into the final frame. Bobby Burk of Bethesda Chevy-Chase would then work around Chase Kamerman's second hit to pitch a scoreless inning. Hunter St Denis would lead off the bottom of the seventh with a single, and then score on a no-outs double by Pierce Tewksbury, who would later be selected as the North's Most Valuable Player. However, Tewksbury would be left stranded, giving the South the win, 8-4. Despite the South's triumph, the North still leads the series 21-17-3, with the 2006 game washed out by rain after two innings and the 2020 game not played due to the global pandemic.
